Dear Maple Lane Families,

We have had a wonderful first full week in our new classes. Students have been settling into new routines and making new connections with classmates and school staff. September is a busy but exciting time in schools.

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, begins at sundown on Friday and continues until sunset on Sunday. We wish a wonderful celebration to all of our Jewish families.

Sincerely,
Neal Campbell

Meet the Staff Event (Thursday, September 21, 6:00pm)

On September 21, Maple Lane families are invited to meet the staff at our school. Unless your child's teacher has arranged an alternate time, families will begin to meet teachers at 6:00 in their classrooms. If you have more than one child at Maple Lane, you can move between classes from 6:00 to 6:30. At 6:30, parents will be called to the gym where we will introduce the staff and provide some information about the school. We look forward to meeting with you next week.

Welcoming a new staff member: Ms. Bal Taggar is the new admin assistant at Maple Lane. Ms. Taggar has worked at several schools in Richmond and we are thrilled to have her joining our staff.

All the Ways We Are Smart

In the first week of school, classes shared a series of books to set the tone for the year. These were in keeping with our school focus of SEL and resiliency. One book that was shared was “All the Ways We Are Smart” by Davina Bell and Allison Colppys. We have a growing display on our library bulletin board showing student thoughts on how they are smart.

SchoolCashOnline: Payment for school fees and agendas can now be made through SchoolCashOnline. Families will receive an email from the school with a link. If any families are in need of financial support, please contact Mr. Campbell.

Things to Remember
