Principal's Report

- Acknowledgment of First Nations Territories.
- Track and Field: There will be a feedback form from the DPAC. The track and field going forward will still be aligned with Provincial Mandated Curriculum. All parents are encouraged to give feedback.
- School Events Coming Up
 - Sports Day
 - Beach Day
- Chair report
- Track and Field: Wording around what was communicated to the parents so that we were not surprised, as parents were only finding out a lot of the information right before the event. Wanting to make sure parents/students are in the know and have all the information going forward. As a PAC, how are we finding out about the information and changes going on within the district, and provide that information to families?
 - Families be on the lookout for the survey for feedback.
 - Parents should have been told about the competitive track meet.
- Sports Day Raffle – Thank you Terrance and Emily. Tickets should be here early next week. CoCo Gift Certificates for big ticket sellers. Raffle will be done right after early dismissal.
- Teacher Year-end Gifts: June 19. Neal is going to find out which teachers are leaving, retiring or maternity leave. And we will vote for gifts at the June meeting.
- AGM: June 11
- Teacher Appreciation Lunch: Kate reached out to Neal on a date. Boy with knife has closed down. Need to look for a new caterer.

- Kate moves to approve $300 for Popsicles for Sports Day. Micheal Seconds. Motion Approved.

Treasurer's Report

- General Account – balance May was about $36,000. $15,000. Looking at ending the year about $20,000.
- Gaming Account – current balance is about $7,000. After payments for the budgeted activities, the balance will be around $3,000. If the raffle goes well, we should be about $12,000 for the end of the year.
- Update and Follow Up
 - Neal talked to staff about the equipment the PAC purchased.
 - Will get purchased through the school for GST credit.

Next PAC meeting & AGM June 11, 6 pm

Meeting adjourned: 6:59 pm
